PHOTOCOPIABLE

3 What are the most popular kinds of music in your class? Look at these opinions. Do you agree with any of them?
I love pop because I like to sing the songs. I listen to pop music in the morning when I wake up. My favourite singer is Beyoncé.
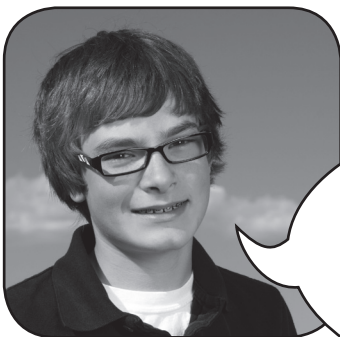

I hate pop music! I like indie music with good lyrics and good musicians. My favourite band is Kasabian. They're really cool.

I only listen to heavy metal music. The guitars are awesome. I like listening to it when I'm travelling on the bus.

I like listening to classical music when I want to chill. I find it really relaxing. Mozart's my favourite.

Heavy metal is just loud! I really like rap music but sometimes I don't like the lyrics. I usually listen to music when I'm studying in my room.

4 Make notes about your own music profile. Talk about music, tracks, bands or singers.

I don't like:
I like:
What's good about it / them?
When I listen to it / them:

5 Tell others in your group about your music profile.

6 Imagine you're making a short YouTube video to show what kind of music your group likes. What will you put on the soundtrack? What visuals will you use? Tell the class your ideas.

Tickets for the match!

1 Work in pairs. Complete the conversation with these phrases.

> Hello, Beth.

> Of course! What time does the match start?

> See you. Bye.

> Really? Cool. Where are they playing?

> Right. So let's meet at the stadium at half past two.

Andy: a) Hello, Beth.

Beth: Hi, Andy! Guess what? I've got tickets to see Chelsea play on Saturday. They're my favourite football team.

Andy: b) _____

Beth: At Stamford Bridge stadium. Do you want to come?

Andy: c) _____

Beth: It starts at 3 o'clock.

Andy: d) _____

Beth: OK. See you on Saturday.

Andy: e) _____

2 Practise reading the dialogue aloud with your partner.

3 Plan a new dialogue between Andy and Beth. Replace the shaded words in exercise 1 with your own ideas. This time Andy doesn't accept the invitation.

> Useful language
>
> I'm afraid I can't. I'm going to (the cinema) on (Sunday).
>
> I'm sorry. I don't like (musicals). Have a good time!
>
> See you soon.

4 Walk around the class. Make an invitation to different classmates. They can accept your invitation if they want to. You have five minutes. How many classmates accept your invitation in that time?

Little white lies

A 'white lie' is a lie that you tell about something when you don't want to upset someone, or you're being polite. It is not usually a very bad or serious thing.

1 Work on your own. Complete the survey with your page and screen favourites. Write three favourites in each category but include three white lies in your list.

Your name
Favourite films
Favourite actors
Favourite TV shows
Favourite books
Favourite computer games

2 Work in small groups. Look at the answers of the other students in your group. Take it in turns to guess the white lies.

Useful language

I think Rafa likes (Forge of Empires) because (he's interested in History).

I don't think Ana likes (Frozen) because (she doesn't like Disney films).
