

1 What does Roberto like doing after school? Listen and tick (✓).

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="radio"/> climbing trees | <input type="radio"/> reading |
| <input type="radio"/> dancing | <input type="radio"/> riding a bike |
| <input type="radio"/> listening to music | <input type="radio"/> riding a scooter |
| <input type="radio"/> playing computer games | <input type="radio"/> swimming |
| <input type="radio"/> playing football | <input type="radio"/> watching TV |
| <input type="radio"/> playing with his friends | <input type="radio"/> writing |

2 What do you like doing after school? Write.

riding a bike

playing games

riding a scooter

playing computer games

reading a book

playing football

listening to music

watching TV

dancing

I like

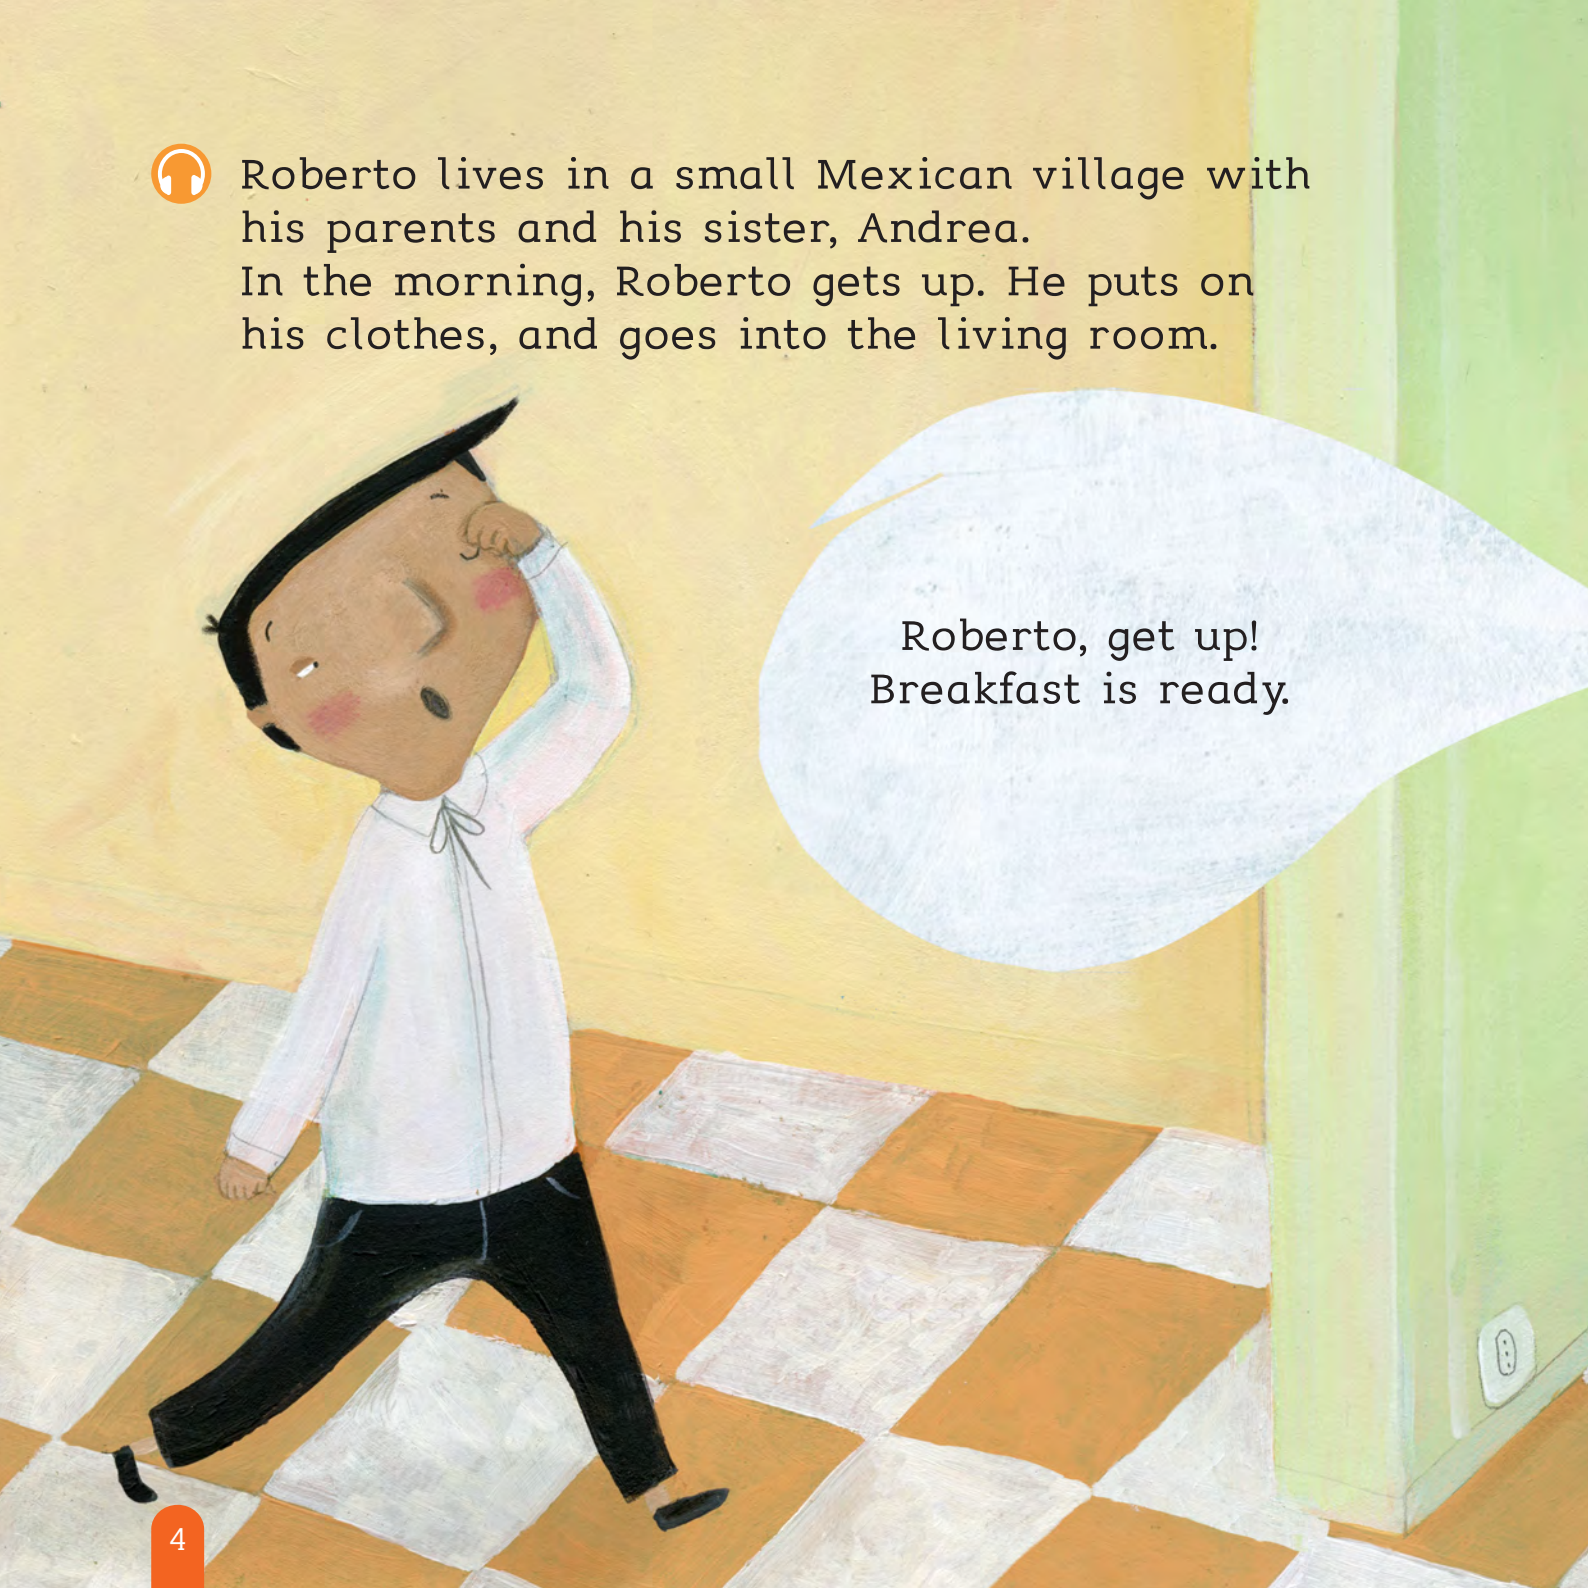

3 Tell a friend.

Roberto lives in a small Mexican village with his parents and his sister, Andrea.

In the morning, Roberto gets up. He puts on his clothes, and goes into the living room.

Roberto, get up!
Breakfast is ready.

THINK

What do you have for breakfast?

Make a Mexican poncho

You need:

paper bag

colouring pencils

pens

scissors

- 1 Cut a hole for the head and two holes for the arms.

- 2 Download the Mexican decorations.

- 3 Decorate your poncho.

- 4 Wear your poncho. Say '¡Hola!' (hello) to your friends.